Introduction: Many things happen in life and take us by surprise that we have no answers for as to the reason why. A phone call comes, a knock at the door, a doctor's consultation and all of a sudden your life as you now know it comes to a grinding halt. At times like these the words of Jesus to His disciples in the Upper Room can become very meaningful, "What I am doing, you do not understand now, but you will know after this." (John 13:7). Jesus said this in the darkest hour of His ministry. Within twenty-four hours He will die the death of crucifixion. Outside the Upper Room was chaos and confusion as evil men were plotting His death. Inside, the disciples were arguing who would be the greatest in the Kingdom. During this dark time in Jesus' life He kept reaching back to His Father. As He did that He received the grace and strength that He needed to continue. For all who are facing difficult and dark circumstances this morning reach back to the Father and draw upon the same strength and grace that your Savior drew upon.
